

YOUR CNCH 2013 instructors have developed unique three-hour “hands-on” workshops that allow you to explore a new technique without spending 2-3 days doing it!!! Moreover, you’ll complete a project in most workshops. And it gets better! Because our focus is learning new techniques on small projects, you will not be packing or schlepping a ton of equipment! For a nominal fee, many instructors are providing the materials you need. Three-hour seminars provide in-depth exposure to topics or techniques you may already enjoy, but would like to explore further. Registrants may select three 3-hour programs.

YOUR INSTRUCTORS ARE: Anita Luvera Mayer, Julie Barbic, Lexi Boeger, Carson Demers, Doshi, Therese Fisher, Stephenie Gaustad, Linda Hartshorn, Karen Huntoon, Julie Kehew, Susan Lazear, Robin Lynde, Margaret Mathewson, Lorna Miser, Marilyn Moore, Sheila O’Hara, Peggy Osterkamp, Wendy Patrucco, Marilyn Romatka, Gayle Still, and Madelyn van der Hoogt!

From their vast array of disciplines, we have selected Topics that include: Weaving, Spinning, Ergonomics, Basketry, Shibori, Surface Design, Dyeing, Felting, Twining, Pin Looms, Kumihimo, Warp Painting, Ikat Design, Knitting, Rigid Heddle Weaving, Cyanotype, Embellishment, Bow Weaving, Viking Knitting, Card Weaving, Ply-Split Braiding, Knotting, and Wire Beading.

Conference details, class descriptions and registration information will be available on-line at CNCH.org by Oct. 1, 2012. Registration will begin Nov. 1, 2012. Mark your calendars now for: CNCH 2013! May 31—June 2, 2013— THE RESORT AT SQUAW CREEK, OLYMPIC VALLEY, USA—the home of our 61st Conference of Northern California Handweavers!

So, let the games begin between now and May 30, 2013, as you create a unique lanyard to which you will attach your conference badge, included in your registration packet. Lanyards will be judged by an instructor committee, as ONE of our competitive and fun Textile H Games with gold, silver, and bronze awards presented to 3 individual winners!

Be sure to check the CNCH.org website for up-coming information about our Textile H Games, the rules, and the specifications, and go for the GOLD!

Mark your calendar for CNCH 2013—May 31 thru June 2, The Resort at Squaw Creek. You’ll be glad you did as you enjoy this unique educational opportunity which includes lots of good food, fun, friends, fashions, tailgate market, door prizes, Textile H Games, awards, scholarship fundraiser basket drawing, all at a stunning, scenic, world-class resort.
